

Getting Traction to Sustainability: The Power of Leading Purposeful, Productive Meetings

Saturday, Jan. 26th 3:00pm

About the Session:

Family owned and small businesses know that to sustain their business and transition to the next generation, they must grow their business and team. What are the best practices for doing so? We will review the Entrepreneur Operating System and how it is helping business owners get more of what they want from their business. Get ready to learn two simple, practical, real-world tools for leading productive meetings and creating the core values that help define who you are and where you are going. Hear about the experiences of one farm family who applied these tools!

About the Speaker:

Jan is President of Salisbury Consulting and has partnered with diverse companies and nonprofits for over 30 years. As an executive coach and consultant, she works with executives, leaders and leadership teams to create empowering, flourishing cultures and results. She is a credentialed Professional Certified Executive Coach focusing on “closing the gap” as leaders and organizations grow to the next level. As a Chair of a Vistage Small Business Owner/CEO Peer Advisory Board and Key Executive board, she works with entrepreneurs, family owned businesses, and key executives. Jan is the co-creator and partner of Leaders Who Coach LLC, an evidence based interactive program that builds leaders to coach and develop others. She is the co-founder and President of the Professional Coaching Association of Idaho and her current project includes writing a book for leaders who coach!
